MODEL PBSS-9624-3

Storage Solutions / Plastic Bulk Shelving & Storage

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

This plastic bulk shelving & storage is the largest all-purpose industrial-grade shelving system in the industry. The unique locking collar system lets you choose whether to build up, out, or both. This shelving has rigid high-density polyethylene panels and a grid top that allows liquids to flow through, promotes air circulation and prevents dust build up. The entire system is chemically resistant, making it an ideal choice for HAZMAT storage or any other applications, corrosive or not.
